

Amnat Tanprasertkul

*Marketing and Sales Manager
ABB Limited, Thailand*

Mr. Amnat Tanprasertkul is the PGGA (Power Grids, Grid Automation) Marketing Manager at ABB Limited., Thailand. He is responsible for sales and marketing of all portfolio under Grid Automation Business Unit which include Substation Automation Products and Systems, Wired and Wireless Communication, Enterprise Software Asset management and Network Control including Microgrids and Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS). Prior to his long-term career with ABB since 1997, he had been working in power system control and protection including Remote Terminal Unit (RTU) and Substation Control System (SCS) in transmission utility Electricity Generating Authority of Thailand (EGAT). He has a versatile training and experience background of HV and MV control and protection, IEC 61850 products and systems including project management in Substation Automation business around 30 years. He has obtained his Master degree in Electrical Engineering from King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok, Master degree in Business Administration, Finance from Kasetsart University, and Master degree in Industrial and Organization Psychology from Chulalongkorn University, Thailand.