

Jacques Borremans

Charging Interface Initiative EV, Hong Kong

Master Engineering degree in Applied Physics from Brussels University (VUB), Belgium.

MBA degree from Rutgers University, New-Jersey, US.

Director of CharIN Asia since 2016. The organization representation the International EV Charging Standard worldwide.

Director of Wyatt & Wang Ltd, with offices in China and Hong Kong, provides consulting services to technology companies & organizations who want to have a foothold in Asia.

Represents European technology Associations related to Automotive & Marine industry at Asian government and Institutional level in matters related to regulations & standardization of technologies.